

I am a senior team manager
in A&H corporate.
I am Faridah.

Collaboration, commitment and deliverability are qualities of craftspeople in my line of work.

Teamwork is key and an effective people-leader is crucial to motivate the team. As a team, we work in unison with a common goal to ensure that our business processes are streamlined, to ensure excellence in service and execution.

To foster a collaborative culture, I regularly consult with the team to gather feedback and share my experiences with them.
